If you see me walking
With my head faced down
Walking as I'm trying
To cover up from my frown
Don't think I haven't seen you before
You've seen me
Don't think I don't remember
What happened last week

You awoke in the night
You left my bed
Leaving me with questions
In my drunken head
Where'd you go, what'd you do?
Where's my money gone?
You took it when you realised
What you've done

It's okay it's alright
We can take it easy tonight
But in time there'll be hell
From the secret that you do not tell

Cause I was caught messin'
(Oh caught in the act)
Well I shouldn't been messin'
(You're just a dirty rat)

Laughs and friends
And friends and laughs
Company you keep company you had
He approached me in the stall
He mentions your name
Said that it was me
And then gave me the blame
Oh he punched me in the face
That's all as I recall

I woke up in the hospital
With blood on the walls
As I opened my eyes I see my wife

She asked what happened on that night

It's okay it's alright
We can take it easy tonight
But in time there'll be hell
From the secret that you do not tell

Well it's cold outside
And I'm walking home
I found you took the battery
Outta my phone
Oh make it there's only
About an hour to go
Walking through the
Miserable winter cold

Well it's cold outside
And I'm walking home
I found you took the battery
Outta my phone
Oh make it there's only
About an hour to go
Walking through the
Miserable winter cold

Cause I was caught messin'
(Oh caught in the act)
Well I shouldn't been messin'
(You're just a dirty rat)
Now I can't stop guessin'
We can all learn a lesson oh

It's okay it's alright
We can take it easy tonight
