Rick Ross: Fresh as a black president, One!
Air force ones in my air force one
Is it all a dream sorry my reality
See me rocking that shit it's complimenting my salary Complimenting?, Told her what the ?
Spend like its ballet, and I touch the budget barely
Seen that girl I holler AYYY!
Told me that she from the A
So you know I had to Ayyy!
Classify my game as A!

She's rocking that thing like
She's rocking that thing like
There's nothing I can say
She's rocking that thing like
She's rocking' that thing like

Ludacris:
Now let me take you to a place far beyond in a whole another galaxy
Travel in your mind, explore your sexuality
Melt your imagination and mold into reality
Your hearts my art gallery (giiiirl)
Can you feel all the pictures I painted?
Cause all of them are related
Like a mother to a son but none of them overrated
Ain't no other you're the one, our destiny is to make it
I gotta thank you just for sharing your world

It's so real and inspirational
No reason for thinking I am incapable
On taking on the duty of making you interchangeable
The thought is sensational its perfect bliss
I'm ready to take the Milky Way to your Hershey's kiss
You know my tongue's got batteries in it
The bedroom we lose calories in it, and start families in it
So don't worry because the situation is under control
Let me dive in your heart, and swim around in your soul
(LUDA!!!!)

The Dream:

She's rocking that thing like
She's rocking that thing like
There's nothing I can say
She's rocking that thing like
She's rocking' that thing like
There's nothing I can say
She's just rocking' that thing like
