(Pre-Chorus)

But I never see just who you are You'd give anything to be a star
No shame, no fame, love me baby
That's why so many things that walked away

(Chorus)

Thirsty hoe, how you doin?
How is that goin? Who are you scorin?
Where did that get you? A couple of bottles
A couple of million, a couple of flowers
You're turning me back, it's on it's on
Promiscuous, ambiguous
Now they turning me back, you've lost it all
Sippin it up til it's all gone

You thirsty hoe
Thirsty hoe
Thirsty hoe
Poor girl

(Verse)

You need a father figure, put your tiny hands in mine
You'll never see it, your love's blind
There are times when I thought that you will maybe be okay
But no way, no way

(Verse)

She came with me, that's really screamin baby give me love
Not they don't break out to break of it, that just comin off
She better be moneyed up, she gotta be Louied down
She Hollywood forever, they know how I roll it down

(Chorus)

Thirsty hoe, how you doin?
How is that goin? Who are you scorin?
Where did that get you? A couple of bottles
A couple of million, a couple of flowers

You're turning me back, it's on it's on
Promiscuous, ambiguous
Now they turning me back, you've lost it all
Sippin it up til it's all gone

You thirsty hoe
Thirsty hoe
Thirsty hoe
Thirsty hoe
Thirsty hoe
Oh baby, baby

(Bridge x2)
You'll forever know where I'll be
I'm telling you baby
I can make you feel what you made me feel
Yea yea
You'll forever know where I'll be
I'm sorry, baby
I can make you feel what you can't feel
