Verse 1

It cold inside
I shivering again
Just waiting for your phone call
It empty street
I know it hard you
To resume your life

Chorus

Her shadow walking outside the window
He didn't mean
Did't mean to do those to you
Her shadow appear outside the window
He really miss
And he feel lonely without you

Verse 2

As the clock as clicking
Time just passing by by
The memory till fresh in his mind
All he do just dreaming about you

Chorus
