I could feel my body tremble

Heard a rumour of a war

Then I saw the heavens open

Like I've never seen before

And now the end

Can you feel the desecration

Has just begun

The invasion of disgrace

Your kingdom come

Can you feel the desolation

Your will be done

Cos you're staring it in the face

I could feel my spirit rising

As I think of Your return

To reclaim the adoration

And the glory you deserve
