This is a story about some boys from Texas
Who know how to get down
And you know we'll be the life of the party
So let's get this started now

The stories we would say when we were young
Believing everything would be okay
Fighting off those whose who said we were wrong
We're gonna make it some day
And no matter where we go
You hear them singing

Rock, Shock and Load!

This is How we do it where we come from
Just get into it (HEY! )
Or move along

This is How we do it where we come from
Just get into it (HEY! )
Or move along

I've got two barrels full with six shots each
Only the finest at my side
Weather is hot as hades, like our southern ladies
Where everythings bigger and everything lasts all night
We get down until the sun comes up

Rock, Shock, and Load!

This is how we do it where we come from
Just get into it

This is How we do it where we come from
Just get into it (HEY! )
Or move along

This is How we do it where we come from
Just get into it (HEY! )
Or move along

Just move along
Oh move along
Just move along
Move along
Move along
Move along

that's a story about some boys from Texas
