Breathe in deep,
if you've got something you need to say and if you don't I'll rip the breath from your lungs you don't deserve to breathe at all you don't deserve

You have never had , to scrape a mans flesh from beneath for nails you've never had, to lick your own wounds clean and in the belly of the beast you twist your way out you fucked me up, you knocked my teeth out and I can't seem to pick'em back up beaten by, your hand, clearly this time you were the clever man but I will obtain my reprimands I will obtain my reprimands

So you'd better breathe in deep you pretentious bastard cause I'm coming, I'm coming, I'm coming for you hold on to your last breath, cause its all you have left

I told you I'd come I told you I'd come for you your just a sheep, in wolves clothing
