It wouldn't make sense for me to say that I don't need you
Cause I'd only be lying, to myself

Whenever we are together
It's like music to the ears
So sweet and simple
But yet can touch you in your heart

I can't recall ever feeling like this
A love like yours is so very hard to resist
It goes deeper
Then I thought it would be
And it shows all over my face
All over my face

See I tried to hide my emotions
By keeping your love at a distance
But the further you are away
The more I needed you near, her near, her near

Foolishly I played games with my friends
I'm thinking that they couldn't understand it
But love!
It showed all over my face

I can't recall ever feeling like this
A love like yours is so very hard to resist
It goes deeper
Then I thought it would be!
And it shows all over my face
Does it show all over my face?
Not another moment to waste

Cause when it comes to your love, I'm not a good liar
Your love, your love, your love

Thinking of you, stimulates desires
My desires!
The feeling I feel, is so unreal

I better make my move
Cause you're the real deal

Now every where I go
It always seems to show on my face
On my face!

Is it showing, on my face?
On my face
Does it show?
Is love showing that clear on my face
Does it show?

Walking around
With the glow of love
Can't you see me smiling?

Everyone knows
That I'm in love
Walking around
With a smile on my face

You see that look!
