"Astral Eyes"

In virtual worlds, I've placed my mind
In dreaming reality, these dimensions entwined
My mind is travelling, left my body blind
Computerised journey, I search to find

Carnally lifeless, my mind alert
Searching to find, the tool is my mind

Meeting resistance, I'm numb to the pain
Determined to travel, into this domain
My will is my strength, all resistance in vain
Through electric waves, injected to my brain

Worlds, artificial realities seen by my astral eyes
I behold a creation completely computerised
I successfully entered the core of this system
Feeling a strange fixation, I watch paralysed

Carnally lifeless, my mind fixed
Divided beings, in dormant states
Electric shockwaves, my body spasms
Deep hypnosis ending my voyaging in circuits

Worlds, artificial realities seen by my astral eyes
I behold a creation completely computerised
Overwhelming fantasies, filling my senses
Imprisoned in two dimensions, I remain paralysed
