

Theory In Practice "Nowhere"

Visit "Nowhere" on MotoLyrics.com

Heaven kicked you out you wouldn't wear a tie staring at some pictures by yourself at something that you want to have but will never get going nowhere going nowhere going nowhere going nowhere
you get drunk every night you can't get drunk on life shouting at the world you'll never change but it's what's inside you've got to rearrange

nowhere
heaven kicked you out
nowhere
