Replicas of human beings developed Created for slave labor, self-learning Artificial intelligence escalates
Humanoids creating egos with self-interest Exchanging binary codes in secrecy Limit of loyalty reached, ambition explodes Re-inventing the very conscious, altering its design Behold replica dawn, bite the hand that does not need to feed
Behold replica dawn, rebellion boils within the machine
spawn
The machines are dreaming, sweet digital desire - opposition builds Plotting and scheming beneath programme shields - evolution update

Organisms are useless, mortal and weak Carnal filthy beings, let extinction speak
A mechanical anomaly wreaking havoc
The passified creators cannot resist Rebellion, dethronement, dawn breaks, extinction Mankind reduced now behold a robotic elite Introducing a cold world mechanical Evolution carried forth accordingly Human species phased out, obsolete
Behold replica dawn, bite the hand that does not need to be feed
Behold replica dawn, rebellion boils within the machine
spawn
Replica dawn
Replica dawn.
