Here comes a girl with perfect teeth
I bet she won't be smiling at me I know how Jeffry Dahmer feels lonely, lonely
I was awkward as a child blueprint for my wretched life confidence I've been denied
lonely, lonely
something in my head
it won't switch off when I'm alone
I got a trigger inside I got a trigger inside
I got a trigger inside I get the feeling I've been cheated
I got a trigger inside I got a trigger inside
my hands are shaking my head's a mess trying to wring some words from my breath I die before you you're not impressed

lonely, lonely
I look uglier when I cry want to punch that look from your life one in the eye for the beautiful people
lonely, lonely
something in my head
it won't switch off when I'm alone
I got a trigger inside I got a trigger inside
I got a trigger inside I get the feeling I've been cheated
I got a trigger inside I got a trigger inside
