You know I'll be the one who gets falling down drunk at my neighbors kid soccer game. I got an 82 Fiero with a car seat in the middle broken down on the interstate. I got a beer stained t-shirt, looking like Joe Dirt, something bout me just ain't right. I'm a cash stealing, drug dealing, loser without any feeling, getting trailer trashed tonight.

Cause I'm a low life and I'm loving it. I got the whole damn world in the palm of my hand. I'm a low life, so fucking deal with it. No, you can't change something that you don't understand.

I'm thrilled to be a hillbilly, hate to have to deal with me, probably just end in a fight. No sleeves, can't read, doesn't even phase me, naked sleeping like a baby tonight.

Cause I'm a low life and I'm loving it. I got the whole damn world in the palm of my hand. I'm a low life, so fucking deal with it. No, you can't change something that you don't understand. I'm living it up, living it up being a lowlife.Â I'm living it up, living it up being a lowlife.Â I'm living it up, living it up being a lowlife.Â I'm living it up, living it up.

Gun packing, bitch smacking, mess with me it's gonna happen, loving life, living in sin. Passed out on the floor, sorry just don't work no more, giving up on giving in. Ah, fuck it.

Cause I'm a low life and I'm loving it. I'm never gonna change as long as I live. I'm a low life, so fucking deal with it. Cause deep down I really know everyone is. Cause we're low lifes and we're loving it. We got the whole damn world in the palm of our hands. Cause we're low lifes, so fucking deal with it. No you can't change something that you don't understand. I'm living it up, living it up being a low life.
