You've got the name I can't remember
You've got the ace I can't remember
You've got the name
And I don't care what
You've got the face but I can't place it
You've got the life but I don't care

Get up, get up, get up, get up

I've got the plan but you're not in it
I've got the play but you're not it
I've got the sense to make you senseless
I've got the words to make you breathless
I've got the goods to get to you always

Get up, get up, get up, get up

It's coming right behind you
Get out of the way
You've got it right behind you
You've got to believe

Get up, get up, get up, get up

Get up
And change the things you can't change

Get up
And show the world your true face

Get up
And fight for what you're after

Get up
And now you'll understand
