Give up
don't tell me give in don't say it i won't give up on this i can't bring myself to bid a farewell i won't those tendencies just don't exist

let's go on
take on the struggle
and stare battle in the eyes let's go take on what's mortal and never let this dream die i'll fight this struggle from within i'll fight the battle til i win

i'm dying to live for my own
hopes and dreams
i know

make way for pure ambition and look out for my emotions together they're a force in themselves and i know just what they're capable of

this is my place in time
my chance to bask in glory
this is my

i know
