Lets get out of here its crowded anyways,
and I would like to whisper.
You were never one to be overreacting,
so what is wrong tonight?

Will you ever love again?
now your composure's gone.
Will you ever love again?
Take my hands we'll run.

Lets get out of this town well run around in circles that wont get us anywhere tonight.

Will you ever love again?
now your composure's gone.
Will you ever love again?
Take my hands we'll run.

So clean your makeup I want to see your beauty shine,
to see true beauty shine.

So clean your makeup I want to see true beauty shine,
to see your beauty shine.

Will you ever love again?
Now your composure's gone.
Will you ever love again?
Take my hands we'll run
