"Silence Reigns Over The Bog"

Visit "Silence Reigns Over The Bog" on MotoLyrics.com

Welcome to the bog, where silence reigns
Their existence ends here, it all comes to a halt...

No place for cowards
No tolerance for the feeble
No respect for the unjust
No life for the unworthy

Along this deserted trail
Bordered by pagan idols
They take their final breath
As the noose is tightened

Kill them for Wuotan!
Kill them for Donar!

Feel your life slip away, darkening before your eyes
Feel the chill of the bog, becoming one with you

Welcome to the bog, where silence still reigns
Their existence ended here, it all came to a halt...
