Somebody's reading your mind Damned if you know who it is they're digging through all of your files Stealing back your best ideas
You cover your windows with lead
Even keeping the pets outside Then you hear a moment too late this sound coming over the phone
"This is the spawning of the cage and aquarium
Don't wait a moment too soon

Used to be different, now you're the same
Yawn as your plane goes down in flames
this is the spawning of the cage and aquarium
Don't wait a moment too soon
Used to be different, now you're the same
Yawn as your plane goes down in flames"
