The color of infinity
inside an empty glass I'm squinting my eye and turning off and on and on and off the light

It's for this experimental film which nobody knows about and which I'm still figuring out
what's going to go
in my experimental film

Yeah- You're all gonna be in this experimental film
and even though I can't explain it
I already know how great it's

I already know the ending it's the part that makes your face implode
I don't know what makes your face implode
but that's the way the movie ends

And in my experimental film which nobody knows about but which I'm still figuring out
your face implodes with my experimental film Yeah- You're all gonna be in this
and even though I can't explain it
even though I can't explain it
I already know how great it's

The color of infinity

what's going to go

and even though I can't explain it
