Since when do you get to tell me exactly how, exactly how I feel? It seems to me you've been real short with everything you're saying
Not completely dishonest, but enough to hide what is real
You Apologize and say you're sorry
But you can't feel
No, you can't even feel Transparent limbs, transparent skin
Don't try and touch me
Don't try and stop me
I'm jumping ship and getting out of here
You know it's true
I'm a softie when it comes to a good time
But that doesn't mean I'm down with
It doesn't mean I'm down for you
You know it
You know it's true
Albatross
What can I say, I just can't help myself
There's no way I could resist, if I wanted
Even if I wanted to
When I saw you, you needed help
That's when I stepped in Cause' you're dying, and I'm trying to stop you
You wandered off, you're far from home
You think I planned for this? I'm just trying to get you back and now I've fallen for you
Every things not lost
It's far from over
Just don't jump
Just don't jump
Take a second look around and try and understand
I know you say you've seen it all before
I'm sorry, not like this
Not like this
