It's hard to move, am I even breathing?
I'm swimming
Feels like I'm swimming in air
If I concentrate, I can get from here to there
I can get from here to there
Look at you girl
You move so well
I can hardly operate and you've got hands like cable cars
Zero gravity
Tell me you're not leaving
I can get this down
I gotta catch up with you
I see outlines of trees and just beyond there's the road
I see the trails of tail lights glowing red and then they're gone
I'm moving faster
Oh my god, that's really weird
I just went through you
I just went past you
Now I'm scared
Now you're just showing off
Showing off for them
You're having too much fun with this
Can I please get just one kiss? Before you leave me in the dust
Before you leave me in the dust again
You're having too much fun with this
Can I please get just one kiss? You're gone, You're gone again
What did I say? I didn't mean to offend you
I guess I did
Please don't be angry
Please don't be angry with me
