It's amazing the way the darkness falls
And the truth out there is cold
Nothin' to keep you warm
Jealousy enlies within me
I gotta feelin' the sun won't shine today, oh
And I gotta know right now
Will I be rich, have everything I want
I stop myself and look to the sky
Oh, I gotta give myself up to the sky
The only truth is in the sky

Nobody just can't tell 'cause I'm stuck in the sky
Of greed and anger and hate
Oh, I tried I tried I tried I tried to rise above it
It comes right back, creeps up on me, and hits double time

This can't be my faith, it's never too late
I wake up holding onto this place
And there's nothin' else I can do
But to give myself up to the sky
Save me, take me to, to the sky
Save me, take me, take me, to the sky
Oh it's so wrong out here beneath the sky
So cold out here come and save me, need to fly
Oh, I gotta give myself
Oh, I gotta give myself
To the sky
(We ask ourselves, why me, or why not me,
Get down on our knees, and look the the sky,
You don't need no house or no fancy car, oh,
Throw up your hands, throw up your heart, oh,
I'll come along, come on with me, oh)
