Wake from this slumber
My tongue is cluttered
I shudder to think of all the things you've kept from me
Why won't you listen to any of my excuses?
They're clever I swear
I'm always prepared

It's life and death it's love and sex
It's everything about you
Why'd you have to make this mess?
You never really had to

This room shakes with resounding sounds
Of the mistakes I never made
I'm here to blame

It's life and death it's love and sex
It's everything about you
Why'd you have to make this mess?
You never had to

I'll give it time
Time to let go
Rest assured my voice is heard wherever you go

It's a sound its a whisper
Drawing listeners surely you have heard it differ
From the lights and looks of things
I've always been in between [x2]

It's life and death it's love and sex
It's everything about you
Why'd you have to make this mess?
You never had to
I'll give it time
Time to let go
Rest assured my voice is heard wherever you go
