This is a song about "On The Road" and when We first met, we had beers
And sang "oo wee oo wee oo wee oo wee oo"
This is the one you have all been waiting for I'm not ashamed, I'm still a chore
And if you've got it
Then get some more

This is for Sal, and for all he left behind Well I like you more than enough to Stay for bubble tea
This is for James, and that time we crashed the church in 98'
By the way, I stole your Sable calendar from out your room

Hey! This is what it all comes down to when you're down and out
Hey! And love can sure come around when you're not out... when you're not out

It starts in dreams
A collage of what we've learned and what we've seen
But where I end up
Is hardly up to me
But tonight, I'm unleashed in what looks like
A favorite haunt
A spot I know...

Hey! This is what it all comes down to when you're
down and out
Hey! And love can sure come around when you're not out... when you're not out

Today
And I'm hoping it's made of rain
Where all the rich kids can breathe cocaine
And I can be more than just a fan
I could look through this side of...
