Sitting here as the rain comes down
I'm thinkin' about my baby, how she's not around
I'm sitting here when the snowflakes fall
I wanna see my baby, but I haven't heard a thing at all

Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction
Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction

Sitting here as the wind goes by
I know I wanna see my baby, got to have an alibi
Sitting here while the rain gets in Waiting for my baby, but she won't be home again

Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction
Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction

Sitting here as the snowflakes fall
I'm wonderin' if I'm gonna see my baby at all
Sitting here as the sun shines bright
I know my baby, she won't be home tonight

Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction
Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction
Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction
Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction
Rockilla, you're still really bent on destruction
