He's just a boy, that has lost his way,
He's a rebel, that has fallen down.
He's a fool, that's blown away,
To you and me, he's a renegade.

He's a clown, that we put down,
He's a man, that doesn't fit.
He's a king, but not in this town,
To you and me, he's a renegade.

But he is a king, when he's on his own,
He's got a bike, and that's his throne.
And when he rides, he's like the wind,
To you and me, he's a renegade.

He's just a boy, that has lost his sights,
He's a stranger, that prowls the night.
He's a devil, that's right,
To you and me, he's a renegade.

Check it out, check his face,
Look at his eyes, they're so sly.
I wonder why, he cries on the inside,
I wonder why, he's a renegade.

Oh please, I'm on my begged, bended knees,
Oh please, please heed my call.
He's just a boy, that has lost his way,
He's just a boy, that's all.
