And if you will adore me
And if you will take this throne
And if you bow before me
All I have is yours to own

There are those that look to Heaven
There are those that will never win
No one knows what will happen
There are those that turn to sin

We are chosen
We are one
We are frightened of no one
And no one will win this war
This is the way
This is the law

All the visions seen before you
All the kingdoms and the thrones
All are yours if you bow before me
Please adore me
All this you'll own

There are those that turn to Heaven
There are those ask questions why
If God is in the heavens
Why does God let children die

We are chosen
We are one
We are frightened of no one
And no one wins the war
This is the way
This is the law

(Solo)

We are chosen
We are one
We are frightened of no one
And no one wins the war

This is the way
This is the law

We are chosen...

Just as Satan tempted Jesus
And Jesus slips and falls
He is a dying on The Cross now
He has died to save us all

And Satan tempted Jusus
But Jesus resisted all
We all die
We are dying

We are chosen
We are one
And no one wins the war
This is the way

We are chosen
We are one
And no one wins the war
