

Thine Eyes Bleed "Consequence Unknown"

Visit "Consequence Unknown" on MotoLyrics.com

I walk with the shadow of death
Failure echoes through the vengeance
As the blood breaks through the skin
I feel alive again
Seems of terror to split the wound
Corruption of silence
Burning bridges to please the foolish
I walk with my head high

Can you feel the hatred now
Step into the flames and burn
Come alive with no ending
I've been dead since the beginning
Dive into the devils sky
Arms tied to without the lies
My hate is now the vein

Can you hear your conscience
Are you still considered proud
When every day your body weeps

I live for the torture
I grew up with the shame
I follow the pressure
With my passive mind
Falling to me, I can't control this hate
