Tread the path of the lifeless faith worn and kept within Voices slowly smothered
As the fear is sinking in dead white
Your skin to light
Warming mind of stone
Follow your spirit to life and love these hollow trees they moan
No escape to relieve the pain
Stomach torn
Led by the insane
An idle dream kept it fading away
A timeless hour now held in vein
It's the beauty of silence
As we revert to stone
It's the beauty of vengeance
Your life now owned
You are the seed of darkness
Never given the chance
Devour the light that haunts you
Wash the image of your hands
Sifting through the pages marked of a life he stole
Find the strength of terror disappear into their wings
Suffocate this illusion
See what judgment bring
You are the seed of darkness
Never given the chance
Devour the light that haunts you wash the image of your hands
Crawl beneath the sun
Asking why you are the one
You are the seed of darkness
Let him drown in hell
Die with the weak
