How long can you hold on to nothing
Rotting inside and out
Follow me on this road to nowhere
As I dig my grave

Engraved in stone, I lie asleep

How long can you hold on to something
I'm dying alone
Follow me

Miles away from a brighter day
Running faster in pouring rain
Eyes of thunder will haunt for awhile
Now forget how it feels to smile
Unforgettable visions
Soon rest with me
Fight my way through the sadness
As the sunset creeps
Fight my way through the sadness
And rest with me

Walking hand and hand
Learn to live again
Your confession proceeds
Carving deep within
As your blood runs thin
Let the absence be seen
