And you can't deal with the problem on the surface anymore
Go for the root and put your boot in the door, knock down the walls
And get right to the core, go for the root Brush off the dust when you find it, now's the time to explore, go for the root It's the conflict between fact and meaning, I'm living proof
And you can't scale the walls 'cos there's an armed guard on the roof, go for the root Just found a crack in the foundations, we'll drill ourselves a way right to the root Brush off the dust when you find it, now's the time to explore, go for the root
You can't deal with the problem on the surface anymore, go for the root It's the conflict between fact and meaning, I'm living
When you watch the starving thousands on the channel of your choice my friend You're an audience for war but you're always switching sides It's like looking at a landscape through a microscope in the middle of the night Even half a revolution would only bring you light, go for the root

You're so messed up by politics lady, there's nothing exotic in poverty, go for the root Where do you get your information, from a dream or a twenty four inch screen?
Brush off the dust when you find it (Brush off, brush off), now's the time to explore, go for the root You can't deal with the problem (Brush off, brush off) on the surface anymore, go for the root It's the conflict between (Brush off, brush off) fact and meaning, I'm living proof
You can't deal with the problem (Brush off, brush off)
on the surface anymore, go for the root
It's the conflict between (Brush off, brush off) fact and

You can't deal...
