

Thine Eyes Bleed "Without Warning"

Visit "Without Warning" on MotoLyrics.com

Collapsing heartache
Brought to the young
Release the heartless soul
This web sorrow now put to shame

Can you tease the restless
Can you taste the life
Through the passing darkness

I walk alone, through the dead wind

Shame will arise
Every time you breathe
With every word you speak
And every time you think
You will hear me bleed

I can't be your perfection
For what it's worth I'll bleed
I can't heal this depression
And what if it was me

Time will only hide
What will soon be carried out
I'll see you bleed for me

Without a tear we sleep
