.Do we hear the same music?
Do we know the same people?
Do we take the same time to change our minds and write the sequel?
Are we in the same picture?
One flick of that switch could kill you
Will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts?
You'd love to know whose side you're on, you're nowhere
You're trapped by information
Just let it go, the key hangs with your senses, set the prisoner free
Do we see the same stars at night?
Where did we leave our education?
Do we have the same proof at least to judge the situation?
Do we understand morality from watching television?
Will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts?
You'd love to know whose side you're on, you're
nowhere
You're trapped by information
Just let it go, the key hangs with your senses, set the prisoner free

Don't we all start as children?
Don't we know how we're guided?
All blood that flows is red?
Why should our skin leave us divided?
You'd love to know whose side you're on, you're
nowhere
You're trapped by information
Just let it go, the key hangs with your senses, set the prisoner free
You'd love to know whose side you're on, you're nowhere
You're trapped by information
Just let it go, the key hangs with your senses, set the prisoner free

How can we fight without a mission?
And will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts?
How can we fight without a mission?

And will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts?
How can we fight without a mission?
And will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts?
How can we fight with no decision? (How can we fight
with no decision?)
And will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts?
(Own those thoughts)
How can we fight without a mission?
And will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts? (The ecstasy of free feelings)
How can we fight with no decision? (How can we fight
with no decision?)
And will we ever feel the ecstasy of free thoughts?
