

Thinkman "Voices In Local Time"

Visit "Voices In Local Time" on MotoLyrics.com

If you have been watching television please remember
to switch on your mind
The match is struck already and the smoke screen has been measured to a perfect fit.
From the cradle to the grave
foresaking all others mothers and fathers and brothers and friends.
The thicker the carpet
the softer the sound of each step.
This is the voice of America, (and my name's Geoffrey).
Don't trust in the slogan
Don't fall for the line...
They'll be eating your mind.
If you have been watching television please remember
to switch on your mind
Born in the west it's so hard to resist

they are practiced in the art of deception.
Born in the west it's so hard to resist
I am practiced in the art of confrontation.
That's the strangest thing I ever heard
That's the strangest thing I ever heard.
Channels flicking, switches switching.
Channels flicking, switches switching.
I hear the drum in the crowd
and the call of the world in a heart beat
I hear the drum in the crowd
and the call of the world in a heart beat
I am here to make you ask the question.

Additional Vocals: LUCIE TAYLER, THE JOAN COLLINS' FAN CLUB

Visit Thinkman page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

