I close my eyes and I see a freak
I think it's me and I'm afraid to speak
I keep on going from the weak to weakness
Way out in line

I dream of lives we could of had before
But the heat is broke down, open doorways
Friends of yours will tell me more
What happens in your mind?

Can we try and take the high road?
Though we don't know where it ends
I wanna be your crystal baller
I wanna show you how it ends

Macarama queens in the afternoon
And I'm in tune or did I speak too soon
Punch drunk on somebody's joke
What happened to the time?

A foot note in your dance of days
In my mind that record still plays
Still wonder what the fuck it says
Hoping there is time

Can we try and take the high road
Though we don't know where it ends
I want to be your crystal baller
I can show you how it ends
Good

Can we talk about tomorrow?
(Some day you must awhile some days)
And the promise that it brings?
(Some day you must awhile some days)
I want to be your crystal baller
((Some day you must awhile some days)
I want to show you everything
(Some day you must awhile some days)
Good

I wonder what the whole thing's for?

I wonder what the whole thing's for?
In the moment you were screaming at me
I must have been somebody else
And the patrons of the pub keep singing

Macarama queens in the afternoon
And I'm in tune or did I speak too soon
Punch drunk on somebody's joke
What happened to the time?

I dream of lives we could of had before
But the heat is broke down, open doorways
Like waiting for a trick to score
It seems that way sometimes

I wonder where we're all going?
I'm homesick for your primal knowing
I wonder why the wind keeps blowing
You through my mind

Try and take the high road
(Some day you must awhile some days)
Remember we were friends
(Some day you must awhile some days)
I want be your crystal baller
(Some day you must awhile some days)
I want be your diamond ring
(Some day you must awhile some days)

The one I never gave you
(Some day you must awhile some days)
And the promise that it brings
(Some day you must awhile some days)
Let me be your crystal baller
(Some day you must awhile some days)
I will show you everything
(Some day you must awhile some days)

Be your crystal baller
(Some day you must awhile some days)
Crystal baller
Be your crystal baller
Crystal baller
