I met you at the barricade
The speed bump where the crowd has gathered
You said the bow was breaking
You wanna get some coffee or something and then

Flow for the crowd that scatters
I found my people and nothing else matters
Bull horns scream in the stormy skies
No one listens but you still have a new tribe

Cos you love the taste of danger
It turns you on (danger)
Just take a look at your face
I know what's going on (what's going on)
You love the taste of danger

Tip-toe through the riots
??? braced for action
No sense, so consequence breeds...
Bounce back at ya

Cos you love the taste of danger
So bring it on (danger)
Just take a look at your face
I know what's going on (what's going on)
You love the taste of danger

Stare at the brand new sneakers on the Idle kiss ??? speaker
These are probable days my friends
Tomorrow's monday and all good things must end
The cops told the crowd they must disperse
Your pretty eyes fog as the tear gas bursts
We found the horses and we move along
And I promised I'd see you but the moment was gone

You attack where the spray can splatters
Deliver us from the chokes and suckers
You and me keep the time of the presidents
Bind together for someone to vote against

Well you lost the taste for danger

And now it's gone (danger)
Just take a look at your face
I know that something's wrong (what's going on)
You lost your taste for danger

???

Cos you love the taste of danger
So bring it on (danger)
You love the taste of danger
You love the taste of danger
And now it's gone (danger, what's going on)
You love the taste of danger
