"Supreme Ancient Sanctum"

Enigmatic crimson tears of thirst Sensual depature, reunification of weeps Monumental caressing breath that embrace the crimson dust

Floating in a kaleidoscopic sequence frozen still The liquid weeps, a ornamental fail to breath Restrained the silence of frozen cosmic sea stand still At one with thine precious sleep
I dream of the invisible
The scars of sculptures the purple sand that bleed the silence of the night

Faceless the effigy of essence-ether to dust
The revealing tears whipped by the dreams Come sweet tragedy into my sea of ice
