Reptile forum lyrics like insect repellent harmful if swallowed
Not argued it's like deep throating a harpoon Wrong like Muslims disobeying Allah rules Packing them in like Rikers island modules No jiminy crickets or kermits non dysfunctional derelicts
Your whole style serves no purpose feather weights penny betting
We separated the mic from the men with any weapon
I touch breaks with a windmill footwork, and three head spins
And I'm answer all of them before you can ask any questions
We separate the lyricists from the lyrically less fortunate
Trying to make a come back with Mickey Mouse choruses
Had me, yawning, often cause your boring Your styles is so dead your whole clique should be mourning
Lyrical frogmen, unknown origin, human amphibian
The industry, don't want to let me in Frog without the big eyes, warts and green skin Dangerously hype like the Hulk on coke Don't discriminate I'll rip niggas on both coasts And I can even write a rhyme without mentioning my wardrobe Acapella or music, rhyme exclusive Everybody wants one like a cigarette in a bullpen

Why must I feel like that, why must I rip the track it's nothing but the frog in me, nothing but the frog in me

Why must I feel like that, why must I rip the track
it's nothing but the frog in me, nothing but the frog in
me

Thirstin Howl the third, I become one with the mic When measured on potential, mc's around here aint my height

According to these microphones I should be the emperor
And fuck all record labels, who said I should have brought a sampler
If rap was a game I'd be M.V.P, misinterpreted violent penalties
And when I rhyme backwards it looks like I'm catching epilepsy
Half man, half rhymes, only have myself to impress me Respect to Sabbath, remember when the rhymes were just a hitting habit
The man felt it wasn't a part of him that didn't matter, still gave God thanks Had two social security cards and birth certificate that was blank
Escape from psychiatrics, chewed upon my mattress And showed them the number one reason why they don't allow matches Throwing gut shots, I heard organs and un-guarded glands
Could have eyeballs in your palms and still couldn't see me, with the hands
Why must I feel like that, why must I rip the track
it's nothing but the frog in me, nothing but the frog in
me

Why must I feel like that, why must I rip the track
it's nothing but the frog in me, nothing but the frog in
me

Since I'm the frog, you emcees are courageous cats Forcing me to leave you like a Chinese woman, ass flat
I remind you of your ex-wife's' cooking
You don't know nobody who would eat me National geographic labeled endangered species Rip it, rip it, not repeat, repeat Emcees are minor contestants, done in, neatly Rap boxer, punch lines hit below the belt Explicit lyrics stickers, telling me to control myself Parental guidance, I learned from the muddy waters and deep shit
On Skilligans Island where religion is violence My flow will leave you lost, like men wearing women disguises
Lyrics tighter than the clothes made for bicyclists Rap's offspring, right about now my freestyles costing DJ Spinna
Show them they're rusty and need oiling Had an affair with miss piggy, till I got tired of her oinking
Hope to never see the pin like a gutter ball in bowling

Thirstin Howl the third, frogstyle's priceless My mouth must be full of insect feces Cause I'm always saying some FLY SHIT
