Silence breaks the screams
It's finally over
Thru holes the light shines thru
The shadows creep in
Check the chains they're tight
So long since freedom
Broke me years ago
But I'm still breathing

Here I am, the way you love me
Got me gagged and bound
Once again your love assaults me
Kicks me to the ground
Torture chamber drag me daily
Killing off pieces of me

Wake myself with the screams
Thank god it's over
Thru holes the light shines thru
And those shadows creep in
Check my chains they're tight
Too long since freedom
Broke me years ago
But I'm still breathing

Here I am, the way you love me
Got me gagged and bound
Once again your love assaults me
Kicks me to the ground
Torture chamber drag me daily
Killing off pieces of me
