Is this something to big for us to do
We are asking the world what they all see
Is this something to big for us to do
We are asking the world what they all see

If we take all the time spent on writing down everything
We could be somewhere else other than home
Other than home

If this is love
Then why is this taking so long
If this is love
Why are we waiting
What are we waiting for

Is this over
Because I've been waiting for a sign to show me your Sincere devotion of writing it all out
And this will never ever go away
And I will never play your game at all

If this is love
Then why is this taking so long
If this is love
Why are we waiting
What are we waiting for

If this is love
Then why is this taking so long
If this is love
Why are we waiting
What are we waiting for
