No I don't got money, but I got the time, honey
If you'll wait for me to turn this all around I'm in debt to you always, as we make the same mistakes
Just know jealousy's no longer in the way

Let's learn to put the past behind us,
Let love push through the door and find us
Just keep your heart wide open, so I can fix what's broken
Stay around, maybe I can be a better me

We could sprawl across our floor, staying up until it's four
Make your eyes my entertainment for the night
Make a home to call our own, I know it's nothing yet
But we can make it great, because we would never be alone

Alone, alone, alone

Let's learn to put the past behind us,
Let love push through the door and find us
And keep your heart wide open, so I can fix what's broken
Stay around, maybe I can be a better me

Don't wanna let you go, let me show you
I can be a better me

Keep your heart wide open, so I can fix what's broken Stay around, maybe

Let's learn to put the past behind us,
Let love push through the door and find us
Just keep your heart wide open, so I can fix what's
broken
Stay around, maybe I can be a better me

(Don't wanna let you go)
I can be a better me

(Please let me know)
I can be a better me
(If we could take it back)
I can be a better me
(Don't wanna let you go)
I can be a better me
(Do you think you will know)
I can be a better me
(If we could take it back)
I can be a better me
