This town is feeling kinda weak tonight
Anything you say is gonna be alright by me
Just as long as I'm in this car driving
Nowhere fast.

We'll take a bridge over the headaches in our lives
We'll light the night with a fire in our eyes
And we'll believe in every word she writes,
And I believe in my friends tonight.
(Whoa-oh)
Whoa-oh, I can never get enough of this.

I'm not gonna fight it
We're both on the same side:
I'm nothing without you

We're only living where the hands are now
With a million different people
That have never let us down
It's getting heavy with the tension of a tangled lie

We'll build a bridge over the headaches in our lives
We'll light the night with a fire in our eyes
And we'll be driving to the burn of the gas light
And we'll believe in this song tonight.

I'm not gonna fight it
We're both on the same side:
I'm nothing without you
And I will open up our eyes
We're coming alive. (We're coming alive)
I'm nothing without you

I'm alright.
I think we might just make it.
I'm alright.
I think we're waking up.
(I think we're waking up!)

I'm alright. (I'm alright!)
I think we might just make it (I think we might just make it)

I'm alright. (I'm alright!)
I think we're waking up

We're not gonna fight it
We're both on the same side:
I'm nothing without you
And I will open up our eyes
We're coming alive. (We're coming alive)
I'm nothing without you (I'm alright)

We'll take a bridge over the headaches in our lives (I'm not gonna fight it) We'll light the night with a fire in our eyes (We're both on the same side)
And we'll believe in every word she writes (I'm nothing without you)
And I believe in my friends tonight.
We'll build a bridge over the headaches in our lives
(And I will open up our eyes)
We'll light the night with a fire in our eyes (We're coming alive)
And we'll be driving to the burn of the gas light (I'm not)
And we'll believe in this song... (I'm alright)
Tonight
