This is love my dear but some things aren't so clear like when you close your eyes do you dream of better, of better

Times we're touching the pen to the paper and drawing new lines

[chorus]

(i know that) i found truth in you i knew the day we started love dies too missing you since the day we parted

Nothing stays the same with every lost you'll find gain i'm searching for a new hope love comes quick but it fades slow

We're writing the words to the song we started years ago

[chorus]

We start with season? love fades away without reason
we start with season? love fades away without reason

[chorus x2]
