You were on my list and honey, if the time permits,
Let's run on back to that December morning.
My driveway, and out of breath
I waited, so we can take the Allegheny air
And just be fine
With our heads in the clouds.

We don't have to be alone:
I'ma set the record straight.
I'ma get on the interstate
And drive there.
And only love could be this strong
And open up the world tonight.
I'ma take on the morning light
And drive there.

We had it all figured out then,
We got close and you became my new best friend.
I never thought that the money or miles
Would keep me from your doorstep.
And out of touch, I missed it
And though it may seem lost or late,
I'm certain that the timing's right:
We've got to do this.

We don't have to be alone:
I'ma set the record straight.
I'ma get on the interstate
And drive there.
And only love could be this strong
To open up the world tonight.
I'ma take on the morning light
And drive there.

I'ma set the record straight
I'ma get on the interstate
I'ma open up the world tonight
I'ma take on the morning light.

I'ma set the record straight
I'ma get on the interstate

I'ma open up the world tonight
I'ma take on the morning light.

We don't have to be alone:
I'ma set the record straight.
I'ma get on the interstate
And drive there.
And only love could be this strong
To open up the world tonight.
I'ma take on the morning light
And drive there.
