The south seems right, 'cause the nights are cold here
Just like her heart as she says goodnight dear
Your fate is his with where he wants to live
So say goodbye to mom and dad tonight

[chorus]

You'll run, you'll hide, you'll say goodbye to everything but you won't cry to prove that this is right for you her bags
Are full her dreams are too You're real but fake you cannot wait the time is now
'cause this is fate for him to choose your path is wrong the end is Near the summers gone

You're the star and it's the scene where you let down everyone who cares she's not prepare to leave this life at home 'cause
Why would she want something of her own

[chorus x2]
