So tonight we make our standstill,
Even though we've got our hands full.
And the thought of us losing this fight,
Might kill me (might kill me)

(Say goodbye, say goodnight)

If you like the way we break it down,
Then pick up your feet and just move around,
You know - that you are our only ones!

So we'll promise to push just a little more,
Kick just a little bit, I swear I'm into it - it happened once before.
And I come crawling back for more

So tonight I break my promise,
And I'm sorry for being honest.
But if I die in these streets alone,
It's better than your arms (better than your arms)

(Say goodbye, say goodnight)

I bet, if I fall asleep and never wake up,
The 1st thing she'll ask her friends is, how's my make up?
Well, I guess you're finally at home

So we'll promise to push just a little more,
Kick just a little bit, I swear I'm into it - it happened once before.
And I come crawling back for more

This calls for a celebration -
Let's raise our glasses in the air
You know it's true -
We do this all for you

If you like the way we break it down,
Then pick up your feet and just move around,
You know - that you are our only ones!

Don't say goodbye, I'm going crazy
I'm sorry, I will be here waiting

(Take this time, make sure you're over it - I'll wait here, 'cause you know you wanted this)
