A chill went through my spine
Something had changed
A steep passage appeared
A reoccurring event
That no one could prevent
Internally burning
No one could understand
The way things were turning
Man made experiment
To punish all and none
Selfinflicted suffering
A selective device
That ensures our demise
Internally bleeding
Falling apart
A reaper with no regrets
A soulless entity
Kissed by the angel of death
A soulless entity
A silent world
That brings out the voices within
The unsolved enigma
Out of control
Internally burning
No one could understand
Internally bleeding
Falling apart
A reaper with no regrets
A soulless entity
Kissed by the angel of death
A soulless entity
Crimson touch of the plague
Plague angel
Crimson touch of the plague
Plague angel
