Hey, why would you say something
We both know you didn't mean
Why would you go and open up your mouth
And make me cause a scene

It's all that I can do to keep myself from wanting you
Knowing the way I do that you want me to

Shut up, shut up
I won't get over this
Or give up, good luck
With "it was just a kiss"
And I won't let up
I've had enough of this, so
Shut up, shut up
Shut up, shut up

Oh no, what did I do wrong?
Could it be our ugly past?
You know that I tried to change, but changing you
Caught up to me too fast

Tell me what I can do to make everything up to you
Knowing the way I do that I need you

Shut up, shut up
I won't get over this
Or give up, good luck
With "it was just a kiss"
And I won't let up
I've had enough of this, so
Shut up, shut up
Shut up, shut up

And the words fall from your tongue
Like you're the only one
The only one with something left to hide
But I've been keeping everything inside

Shut up, shut up
I won't get over this

Or give up, good luck
With "it was just a kiss"
And I won't let up
I've had enough of this, so
Shut up, shut up
Shut up, shut up

Shut up, shut up
I won't get over this
Or give up, good luck
With "it was just a kiss"
And I won't let up
I've had enough of this, so
Let up, let up
I'm fed up, fed up

Shut up, shut up
I won't get over this
Or give up, good luck
With "it was just a kiss"
And I won't let up
I've had enough of this, so
Shut up, shut up
Shut up, shut up
