Here we are once again
Frozen in time
As we watch from afar.
Helpless meet hopeless
This time I play the victim
Repetition must be the theme
In this wicked web you weave.

I shall watch as you burn x4

Oh how the mighty shall fall
Backing yourself deeper, deeper in
To this hole you've dug for yourself
With no remorse
Your prayers shall go unheard
I've consulted your prophet
"Fall on the god that is godless"

Engulfed in your arrogance
You'll light this whole city
Engulfed in your ignorance
You'll light this whole city

I shall watch as you burn x4
