Don't Hang Up

I took too long
To find out I'm wrong
And all these mistakes that I've made
Have me praying for a dial tone
Connect me to you
Like back when our hands were on hold
And my heart was still hung up on you

I'll take the fall
The blame for it all
The reason the summer was cold
And my heart didn't have time to thaw
Today I'm all through
Over with words filling songs
Screaming how I was wrong about you

I was so wrong about you, so wrong about you

Don't hang up
I hear you breathing
I can feel you on the line
Don't hang up
I have something to say if you'd give me the time
And after this I'll let you go
I just wanted you to know
That baby I'm sorry

I'm tragically flawed
Whatever it's called
You know when you're running on fumes

And somehow you're surprised when you stall
We both know it's true
When I say I stand in my way more than anyone bigger could do

And I feel so wrong without you, so wrong without you

Don't hang up
I hear you breathing

I can feel you on the line
Don't hang up
I have something to say if you'd give me the time
And after this I'll let you go
I just wanted you to know
That baby I'm sorry

Go on and let me down, go on, go on
Go on and let me down, go on, go on

Don't hang up
I hear you breathing
I can feel you on the line
Don't hang up
I have something to say if you'd give me the time (x2)

Don't hang up
Don't hang up this time
Don't hang up, hang up
